

Joint MedRIN+SCERIN Workshop, June 2021

➤ Joint Workshop Background:

- Planned for 15-18 June 2020 in Thessaloniki, Greece was delayed till June 2021 (COVID-19).
- In coordination with Transatlantic Training (TAT), which was to precede the Joint Workshop; TAT rescheduled also.

➤ Joint Workshop News - decided on 2/24/2021:

- Format: virtual, 4 hours/day on 3 consecutive days
- Dates: 3 days June 15-17 2021
- Topic/focus: Ecosystem health, droughts, and wildfires in the context of climate change
- Targeted outcomes: maintain and advance collaborations, foster joint activities (i.e., workshops, projects, visits) and publications, and raise the visibility of the GOFC-GOLD RINs in the region
- Training: In coordination with the Trans-Atlantic Training (TAT) for students and young professionals Dates: June 1-4th 2021. TAT participants are invited to participate in the Joint SCERIN/MedRIN workshop keynote and expert talks

Joint SCERIN+MedRIN Workshop, June 2021

- The goals of the joint workshop are:
 - Inform about the on-going major scientific efforts and projects with possible contribution and follow-up activities for the participants
 - Foster new ideas, joint activities and papers by the participants
 - Facilitate progress of the on-going activities of the networks focus groups
 - Professional networking and interaction – we seek ideas for social interaction at the virtual workshop
- Virtual Hosts: START facilitating the GOFC-GOLD virtual events
- Joint Workshop Co-Organizers:
 - SCERIN co-organizers: Petya Campbell, Jana Albrechtova, and Lucie Kupkova
 - MedRIN co-organizers: Ioannis Gitas, Diofantos Hadjimitsis, George Zalidis, and Vince Ambrosia
 - TAT Training Organized by: Premysl Stych in collaboration with Chariton Kalaifzidis
 - START virtual hosts and co-organizers: John Padgham and Clay Oboth

Use the CHAT to comment and ask questions to actively participate in the 2021 JOINT SCERIN and MedRIN workshop!!!

